Official AchemAsia Publications

— ACHEMA worldwide News

is published twice a year as an English language supplement to PROCESS, PROCESS worldwide and LaborPraxis, and it is also distributed as an independent print newsletter. It provides information about current news and trends in the ACHEMA worldwide network and has a circulation of 100,000.

ACHEMA worldwide News 1-07 will be published on March 13th, 2007

ACHEMA worldwide News 2-07 will be published on November 6th, 2007

— AchemAsia Daily

This publication with a circulation of 15,000 copies, which brings its readers the latest news from AchemAsia 2007, will be taken over by PROCESS (Vogel Industrie Medien, Würzburg/Germany) its Chinese affiliate PROCESS China (Vogel China Consulting, Beijing/China VR) and Chemical Engineering (CE, Access Intelligence, New York/USA) as the third partner. The three daily issues of AchemAsia, which are published in Chinese and English, contain all of the latest news and trends along with information about the daily program of events.

— AchemAsia Preview

The monthly Chinese language issues of PROCESS China provide the target group with a preview of the developments, trends and latest products at AchemAsia 2007.
